

I travel often and rely on XM radio. I am very much against any restrictions on this modern way of enjoying radio. Local traffic, weather and the use of repeaters in the downtown area should be expanded. Each medium should have to compete, not be regulated out of competition.